About this property

This pleasantly furnished holiday home with pool, finds itself in a secluded and peaceful location in a rural setting in the hinterland of Dalmatia, not far from the town of Sinj. This property lends itself to a family with children as the facilities include a beautiful pool, with a grass area that has swings and a slide for toddlers as well as a table tennis table and gorgeous seating area for adults. This holiday home is a perfect base for family or friends to explore the area. Why not visit the nearby River Cetina, where you can go on a rafting adventure or go to see the beautiful lake Peruča with sandy beach. There is also opportunities for paragliding on the nearest mountain. The region is well known for horse riding excursions which all the family would enjoy. The sea is about 40km away and the nearest coastal town is Split, with a rich Roman history and many events.
